Our commitment

The trustees have delegated responsibility for this policy to the elders. The elders at Glebe Chapel seek to ensure that the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults is paramount at all times during chapel activities, and that those working with these groups are well enough informed to be able to contribute to the wider safeguarding agenda. We acknowledge that children, young people and vulnerable adults can be the victims of abuse and neglect and we have devised the procedures set out in this safeguarding policy in accordance with statutory guidance. We are committed to building constructive links with statutory and voluntary agencies involved in safeguarding.

The elders at Glebe Chapel undertake to:

SECTION 1

Recognising and responding appropriately to an allegation or suspicion of abuse

In order to safeguard children at Glebe Chapel we endeavour to do the following:

1. Take all appropriate preventative measures to protect children, young people and vulnerable adults from any form of physical or mental violence, injury, abuse, neglect or negligent treatment, maltreatment or exploitation, including sexual abuse, whilst in the care of anyone organising, running or supporting an activity or event under the auspices of Glebe Chapel.
2. Put in place effective procedures to arrange necessary support and advice for the child, young person or vulnerable adult and for those who are involved in their care. This includes methods designed to prevent (and if appropriate identify, report, refer and follow-up) instances of maltreatment described in 1. above.

Safeguarding awareness

The elders at Glebe Chapel are committed to on-going safeguarding training and development opportunities for all workers, to develop a culture of awareness of safeguarding issues to help protect everyone. All our workers will receive induction training and undertake recognised safeguarding training every 3 years.

The elders at Glebe Chapel will also ensure that children and vulnerable adults are provided with information on where to get help and advice in relation to abuse, discrimination, bullying or any other matter where they have a concern.

Responding to allegations of abuse

Under no circumstances will a worker carry out their own investigation into an allegation or suspicion of abuse.

The following procedures have been adopted:

- The person in receipt of allegations or suspicions of abuse should report concerns as soon as possible to Jan Daines (hereafter the "Safeguarding Co-ordinator") Tel no: 01531 821863 who is nominated by the elders to act on their behalf in dealing with the allegation or suspicion of neglect or abuse, including referring the matter on to the statutory authorities.
- In the absence of the Safeguarding Co-ordinator or, if the suspicions in any way involve the Safeguarding Co-ordinator, then the report should be made to either of the elders with safeguarding responsibility:
Tim Dean 01531 822502 or Ian Cracknell 01989 720754.
- If the suspicions implicate the Safeguarding Co-ordinator, then the report should be made in the first instance to the Churches' Child Protection Advisory Service (CCPAS) PO Box 133, Swanley, Kent, BR8 7UQ. Telephone 0845 1204550. Alternatively contact Social Services or the police.
- With their knowledge and understanding the person dealing with the matter (the safeguarding coordinator/ elder with responsibility) will make a judgment as to how to deal with the matter. This decision (including the rationale behind it) will be documented and securely kept.

Where the concern is about a child, the Safeguarding Co-ordinator will contact Children's Social Services. Where the concern is regarding an adult in need of protection they will contact Adult Social Services or take advice from CCPAS as above.

The local Children's Social Services office telephone number (office hours) is 01452 426565. The out of hours emergency number is 01452 641494.

The local Adult Social Services office telephone number (office hours) is 01452 426868. The out of hours emergency number is 01452 614194.

The Police Child Protection Team telephone number is 101 ext 6345.

- Suspicions will not be discussed with anyone other than those nominated above. A written record of the concerns should be made in accordance with these procedures and kept in a secure place.
- In the event of a change of safeguarding personnel any records will be transferred accordingly.
- Whilst allegations or suspicions of abuse will normally be reported to the Safeguarding Co-ordinator, the absence of the Safeguarding Co-ordinator should not delay referral to Social Services, the Police or taking advice from CCPAS.
- The elders at Glebe Chapel will support the Safeguarding Co-ordinator in their role, and accept that any information they may have in their possession will be shared in a strictly limited way on a need to know basis.

The role of the safeguarding co-ordinator is to collate and clarify the precise details of the allegation or suspicion and pass this information on to statutory agencies who have a legal duty to investigate.

Detailed procedures where there is a concern about a child:

Allegations of physical or emotional abuse or neglect:

If a child has a physical injury, a symptom of neglect or where there are concerns about emotional abuse, the Safeguarding Co-ordinator will:

- Contact Children's Social Services (or CCPAS) for advice in cases of deliberate injury, if concerned about a child's safety or if a child is afraid to return home.
- Not tell the parents or carers unless, having contacted Children's Social Services, they have been advised to do so.
- Seek medical help (if needed), informing the doctor of any suspicions.
- For lesser concerns, (e.g. poor parenting), encourage parent/carer to seek help, but not if this places the child at risk of significant harm.
- Where the parent/carer is unwilling to seek help, offer to accompany them. In cases of real concern, if they still fail to act, contact Children's Social Services directly for advice.
- Seek and follow advice given by CCPAS (who will confirm their advice in writing) if unsure whether or not to refer a case to Children's Social Services.

Allegations of sexual abuse

In the event of allegations or suspicions of sexual abuse, the Safeguarding Co-ordinator will:

- Contact the Children's Social Services Department Duty Social Worker for children and families or Police Child Protection Team direct. They will NOT speak to the parent/carer or anyone else.
- Seek and follow the advice given by CCPAS if, for any reason, they are unsure whether or not to contact Children's Social Services/Police. CCPAS will confirm its advice in writing for future reference.

The following procedure will be followed where there is a concern that an adult is in need of protection:

Suspicious or allegations of physical or sexual abuse

If a vulnerable adult has a physical injury or symptom of sexual abuse the Safeguarding Co-ordinator will:

- Discuss any concerns with the individual themselves giving due regard to their autonomy, privacy and rights to lead an independent life.
- If the vulnerable adult is in immediate danger or has sustained a serious injury, contact the Emergency Services, informing them of any suspicions.
- Seek advice from the Adult Social Care Vulnerable Adults Team or CCPAS.

Allegations of abuse against a person who works with children

If an accusation is made against a worker (whether a volunteer or paid member of staff) whilst following the procedure outlined above, the Safeguarding Co-ordinator, in accordance with Local Safeguarding Children Board (LSCB) procedures will need to liaise with Children's Social Services in regards to the suspension of the worker, also making a referral to a Safeguarding Adviser (SA)/ Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO).

SECTION 4

Practice Guidelines

As an organisation working with children, young people and vulnerable adults we wish to operate and promote good working practice. This will enable workers to run activities safely, develop good relationships and minimise the risk of false accusation.

Working in Partnership with other individuals and/or organisations

We will make our safeguarding expectations clear to all organisations with whom we arrange joint events. It is also our expectation that any organisation using our premises, as part of the letting agreement will have their own safeguarding policy.

Good communication is essential in promoting safeguarding to those we wish to protect, to everyone involved in working with children and vulnerable adults, and to all those with whom we work in partnership. This safeguarding policy is just one means of promoting safeguarding.
